

The old Smith home in Heber where many dances were held during the years on the second floor.